

From the Desk of Miss McElfresh

Thursday, October 29, 2015

It has been an exciting week as students honored Red Ribbon week with an activity each day put on by Student Council. The students also continued their study of place value and finished learning about the butterfly life cycle. Tomorrow we will celebrate Halloween! Please refer to the schedule below. I hope that everyone enjoys a lovely weekend! ☺

11:15 - Costume Parade

12:00 - Pizza Lunch

12:30 - Halloween Carnival (sponsored by 8th
Grade)

2:00 - Dismissal

Upcoming Events

Veteran's Day
No School
November 11

Noon Dismissal
November 24

Thanksgiving
Break
No School
November 25 to 29

Reminder

Don't forget to register for the Rosary Project if you are interested. This is sure to be a very memorable experience for your children as they prepare for 1st Communion. See the flyer in your Reconciliation Parent Meeting folder

What are we learning next week?

Reading: Fall Reading Comprehension. STAR Testing 11/5 & 11/6

Math: How do you locate numbers on a number line? Topic 4 Test

Writing: Squiggle Writing

Second Steps: Empathy Training

Science: What are the steps in the life cycle of the frog?

Religion: Where is the Confessional located? The stories of The Prodigal Son and The Lost Coin.