Weekly Update

We were back to our regular schedule in 2nd grade this week. The students wrapped up their study of the Eucharist and began learning about important people in history. Please make sure that you review the upcoming Hero Project page that came home yesterday in homework folders. Each student was assigned an important person in history to research and complete a project on. These projects will be due May 24th. If you have any questions about the project after reading the assignment page, feel free to let me know! We will continue with our regular schedule next week.

I wish you all a lovely weekend and to all of our wonderful mothers.....

Happy Mother's Day!
